Ok – I'm going to force Contacts to put that in writing to us – don't want to get stuck with shirt tale waving in the wind.

Hi Todd,

Most Performance Base Service Contracts (PBSC) can be extended based on a satisfactory (Past Performance) or CPARS without recompeting. Once a contract is initiated, I believe they can be extended an option period up to nineteen years.

Cordially,

Robert

So here is what I am concerned about . . . can they extend it or do we have to initiate a new procurement action?

Hi Todd,

The Chase, Carson & White LLC Mail/Warehouse PBSC ends on 10/17/2019. The contract was initiated on 10/17 2014. Heather Pinney and I have discussed extending the contract per an option period to facilitate the EDDP/Decommissioning of the NERL Las Vegas leased buildings.

Cordially,

Robert

Robert,

Per subject line, appearing after my signature block – please correct to the actual way it exists in the award documentation you have on file.
